

Chapter Five
DOCUMENT PREPARATION

---

The individuals who were primarily responsible for the preparation of this EA are listed below, together with their qualifications. The list includes persons affiliated with the Federal Aviation Administration, Carroll County, Delta Airport Consultants, Inc., Coastal Carolina Research, Inc., KB Environmental Sciences, Inc., Rettew Associates, Inc., and Travesky & Associates, Ltd.

Federal Aviation Administration

Jennifer Mendelsohn – M.A. Environmental Management, B.S., Environmental Science, 9 years experience. Environmental Protection Specialist, Airports Division, Washington Airports District Office – Responsible for detailed FAA evaluation of all parts of the EA.

Carroll County Regional Airport

Joe McKelvey – Airport Manager (2008-present)

Delta Airport Consultants, Inc.

Colleen M. Angstadt – M.S. and B.S. Geoenvironmental Studies, 9 years experience. Project Manager – responsible for overall EA document preparation, environmental agency coordination, and public participation program/information.

Kathryn S. Keels, C.M. – B.S. Geography, 2 years experience. Project Planner – responsible for research and assistance with EA document preparation.

Delta Airport Consultants, Inc. – Technical support

Coastal Carolina Research, Inc.

Loretta Lautzenheiser, RPA – M.A., B.S. Anthropology, 31 years of cultural resource management experience. Project manager and principal investigator for Cultural Resources Survey and Evaluations.

Dennis Gosser, RPA – PhD (Candidate) Anthropology, M.A. and B.A. Anthropology, 23 years of cultural resource experience. Principal Investigator for Phase II archaeological evaluation.

Bill Hall – B.A. History, 9 years experience. Conducted background research and composed historic context of Phase I and Phase II Cultural Resources Survey.

Jennifer Stewart – M.A. Historic Preservation, B.A. Art Education, 8 years experience. Conducted the architectural survey and evaluation.

KB Environmental Sciences, Inc.

Carrol Bryant – B.A. Geography, 28 years experience in air pollutant monitoring, modeling, and forecasting. Project discipline manager and writer for the air quality assessment.

Mike Ratte – B.S. Meteorology, 17 years experience in air quality dispersion modeling, fugitive dust analysis, ambient monitoring, and data analysis in support of air quality compliance. Technical Analyst for the air quality assessment.

Rettew Associates, Inc.

Daniel P. Synoracki – B.A. Biology/Environmental Planning, 22 years of environmental consulting experience. Project Manager and lead biologist for environmental mitigation measures.

Timothy A. Falkenstein – M.S. Biology, B.S. Environmental Resource Management, A.S Forestry, 16 years of environmental investigation and permitting experience. Group Manager/Project Manager Natural Sciences.

Jeremy T. Hite – B.S. Wildlife and Fisheries Science, 8 years experience with threatened and endangered species and wetlands. Primary investigator for Phase I (habitat evaluations), Phase II (visual encounter) and Phase III (trapping) surveys for bog turtles in PA and MD.

Jonathan P. Kasitz – B.S. Biology/Ecology, 5 years of natural resource consulting experience. Field biologist for wetland, bog turtle, and forest stand studies and preparation of permitting documents.

Brian J. Kondikoff – B.S. Biology/Ecology, 4 years experience, Part of team which conducted environmental surveys and reports, such as Wetland Delineation, Bog Turtle Surveys, Forest Stand Delineation and Forest Conservation Plans.

Travesky and Associates, Ltd.

Marie Travesky – B.A. Government and Politics, 25 years of transportation, government affairs, and community relations experience. Responsible for public involvement and community relations.

Denise Nugent – Master of Public Administration (MPA), B.A. Political Science, 18 years experience. Developed public outreach program and participated in public and stakeholder coordination and communications activities.

